OFFICER ON LOGAN IS AUTHOR OF A FINE ARMY BOOK

Major M. F. Steele, Second Cavalry, who is a passenger aboard the transport Logan with his regiment, en route to Manila, is the author of "American Campaigns." This has been issued in two volumes under the imprint of the war department.

These volumes represent a part of Major Steele's three years' work as lecturer in military history at the Army service schools at Fort Leavenworth. Opening with the campaigns of the Colonial wars there follow the northern and southern campaigns of the Revolution, the War of 1812, Taylor's and Scott's campaigns in the Mexican War, and in the Civil War the following: Forts Henry and Donelson, Shiloh, Peninsular, Jackson's Valley, Second Bull Run, Antietam, Fredericksburg, Stone River, Chancellorsville, Gettysburg, Vicksburg, Chickamauga, Chattanooga, the Wilderness, Spottsylvania Court House, Petersburg, Atlanta, Franklin and Nashville. A closing chapter is devoted to the Spanish-American War, followed by an appendix giving Union and Confederate commanders of the Civil War, taken from "Battles and Leaders of the Civil War" and Heitman's "Historical Register."

Altogether, this work supplies a need not met by any other single work, and presents an admirable, lucid and concise outline of this country's military history. Major Steele modestly dis-claims any attempt at a first-hand mastery of "that great mine of fact and fiction," the Rebellion Records, made impossible by the limitations of time, and acknowledges his indebtedness to Mr. John Codman Ropes, General E. P.
Alexander and a dozen others who have given many years of their lives to the task.

ALLEGED SMUGGLERS TAKEN OFF THE ASIA

Father and Son Taken in Charge by Federal Officers as Illicit Dope Importers.

Uncle Sam's long legal arm stretched out yesterday, guided by United States District Attorney Breckons and United States Marshal Hendry and gathered in three Chinese members of the crew of the Pacific Mail steamship Asia. Later the law loosed its grasp on one and retained but two, who were in the custody of the federal officers when the Asia departed for Japan and China yesterday afternoon.

After a spectacular identification by Hawaiian stevedores the Chinese were taken off the steamer, and will probably be charged with smuggling opium ashore here. Specifically, their offense is that they supplied tins of opium to Hawaiian stevedores working on the Asia a few weeks ago in this port, and the stevedores, assisted by a Hawaiian member of the immigration inspector's staff, got the opium ashore. A custom's inspector attempted to hold up one Hawaiian taking the dope ashore. The Hawaiian ran away but dropped three tins. He fled to the mountains but in two days came in and gave himself up.
His statements to the federal officers disclosed an opium-smuggling ring and many arrests followed. The district attorney played a waiting game and when the Asia came into port yesterday he went aboard with some of the arrested stevedores and some identifications followed. The first and second boatswains were first taken in hand. Then there was a question as to whether they were the right ones.

In order to make sure, muster was held a little earlier than usual in the afternoon. The district attorney and marshal were there and they passed up the line of Chinese and a stevedore finally picked out a lamp trimmer. It then turned out that the second boatswain is the son of the lamp trimmer who is rather aged. Two and two, according to the district attorney, makes four, and from a Sherlock Holmes or Brocktonian method of reasoning the evidence hitches up pretty well when both son and father are identified as the dope sellers. Wong Ling Chow is the first boatswain and Leong Lee the second boatswain.

SAME OLD REASON— NO ACCOMMODATIONS

According to Mrs. Headlee, the promotion committee's Los Angeles representative, a steamship company is trying to arrange for a special steamer for a trip to Honolulu about March 1.
Such a trip may be made under the auspices of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce. The trip, Mrs. Headlee reports, is merely in the planning stages and nothing definite has been accomplished. The only difficulty just now seems to be in getting a suitable steamer.
She also states that there are rumors of a steamer being placed on a regular run from San Pedro to Honolulu.

L. G. Murphy, secretary of the Spokane Chamber of Commerce, writes the promotion committee that it is with regret he has to advise the committee that owing to inability to secure accommodations on a regular line of steamers out of San Francisco, the Spokane people have abandoned the idea of an excursion from Spokane to Honolulu. However, a number of Spokane people will visit Honolulu during the winter. Among them will be R. L. Culbertson, a member of the chamber of commerce and the most prominent dry goods man of Spokane.

The stock of neckwear, shirts and collars at McNerny's is unsurpassed in any shop in the city. The neckwear matches the shirts and hosiery, and is sold that way when desired, or it will be sold in single pieces. Any of the goods at McNerny's will answer for Christmas offerings.
